

Guiding Question: Week 4

Our class needs to send 3 representatives to a mathematics competition. How many possible teams could represent us in that competition? Without additional research, think through how to compute that number, and share your reasoning.